THE BELL TOWER

May - 2011

Dear People of Grace,

The above passage from our Easter Sunday reading reminds us that the Easter message is one of ongoing action. Easter is not about looking for Jesus back at the tomb; nor is it about trying to find proof of him in the artifacts or diggings or even the buildings from long ago. Jesus waits for us out there – in our Galilee's. We are to look for him as we go about our lives in whatever place we are in, and we live in the expectation of encountering him daily.

We also understand that Easter is not just a day – it is not merely an annual celebration of a long-ago miraculous event. It is a state of being. A state of expectant hope – hope that is born from the belief that the risen Lord lives in the here and now. The Easter message is meaningful to us only when we embrace it in our daily lives. Christ lives in the midst of us, and that is where we will find him. The resurrection is as much a miracle for us today as it was for the women to whom the above words were first spoken. So do not look for him among the dead; look for him in the world and people around you.

May your Easter season be blessed with the love and grace of the risen Lord.

JAN'S CORNER

I QUIT . . . I RESIGN . . . I RETIRE! Which is it?

To me, "I quit" means leaving in a bad mood, and that there is something in the job that is so bad that quitting is the only option. "I resign" means taking one's time in leaving, and perhaps hoping for a better job elsewhere. "I retire" means coming to the time when one has nothing more to offer, when the job – though it is still needed – is beyond the person who is saying, "I retire."

That is what I did – I retired because I had very little left to offer. I have done the Bell Tower since its beginning – I can't tell you when that was. What I can tell you is that it was fun -- and often challenging -- and pleasing when it came out as I expected.

Now, it is over, however. I have "retired," pleased with myself and happy to see what is next on the horizon. Thank you for your support and encouragement. Leslie will do a great job!

THANK YOU, JAN

Rector's note:

We have been so greatly blessed for so long by Jan's faithful commitment to spreading the news of Grace via the Bell Tower. We have many subscribers who left Galveston long ago, but still love to receive and read our monthly newsletter. Jan has successfully endeavored to keep it both interesting and informative throughout the many years that she has been our editor. We are glad that she is still 'up' for writing a monthly "Jan's Corner" and look forward to her words of wisdom and humor in the future. On behalf of Grace Church—Thank you Jan!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

submitted by Cathy Smith

"Walking Through the Bible" will be the theme for this summer's Christian Education program. There are many wonderful stories in the Old and New Testaments that are based on this idea, and our young members will be learning about these and also participating in related hands-on projects. Additionally, any middle school or high school students who would like to assist with these Sunday morning classes during the summer will be enthusiastically welcomed.

WHY GO TO CHURCH?

(Unattributed – on-line)

Nancy Wilkes

An energetic and successful businessman was complaining that it made no sense to him to waste his hard earned "day off" by going to church every Sunday. "I've gone for 30 years now," he said, "and in that time I have heard more than 1,500 sermons. But, for the life of me, I can't remember much of any of them. So, why go? I think I'm wasting my time by being there, and what's more, the ministers are wasting their time by giving sermons at all."

Another equally successful parishioner listening to this, responded quietly:

"I've been married for 30 years now. In that time, my wife has cooked probably more than 10,000 meals – sometimes three in one day. But, for the life of me, I cannot recall her entire "balanced meal" menu plan for a single one of those meals. But I do know this – they all nourished me and gave me the health and strength I needed to do my work. If my wife had not served me those nourishing meals – if I had eaten junk food instead –- I would not enjoy the good health I do today, and in fact, I might even be physically dead. Likewise, if I had not gone to church each week -- even though I cannot remember exactly what was "served" -- I would be spiritually malnourished, and perhaps even spiritually dead today. Thank God for our physical and our spiritual nourishment."

When you are "down" to nothing, God is probably "up" to something.

Faith sees the invisible, believes the incredible, and receives the impossible.

The next time Satan is knocking at your door, consider stepping aside and saying,

"Jesus, could you get that for me?"
